Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 2-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 4,728,020 to Green et al. Green et al shows the same apparatus for applying surgical fasteners.

With respect to claim 2, an elongate member (100) defining a longitudinal axis (102), a staple storage portion (280) attached to a distal portion of the elongate member and being movable between two positions with respect to the longitudinal axis defined by the elongate member, a control member capable of rotating the elongate member about the longitudinal axis (190, fig. 1, i.e. 190 controls whether shaft member 100 can rotate between a plurality of positions), an advancing mechanism (70) capable of advancing surgical fasteners through the staple storage portion and an anvil (290).

With respect to claim 3, the apparatus having a frame and handle assembly (20, fig. 1), the assembly has a stationary member and a pivotal member (70).

With respect to claims 4 and 5, the apparatus of Green et al discharges surgical fasteners when the handle member (70) is squeezed by an operator, i.e. pivotal member pivots between positions. The
